

2012 Annual Interagency Depository Seminar Schedule

Space is still available for the U.S. Government Printing Office's (GPO's) 25th Annual Interagency Depository Seminar, which will be held in Washington, DC, from Monday, July 30 through Friday, August 3, 2012. The 2012 Interagency Depository Seminar Schedule of speakers and events, as well as the 2012 Registrant Guide, are now available.

During the week-long seminar, representatives from various Federal agencies will present an overview of their information products and activities as they relate to libraries participating in the Federal Depository Library Program (FDLP). In addition to speakers and training sessions presented by the GPO, this year's events include representatives from the Federal Reserve Bank; the Library of Congress; the National Agricultural Library; the National Library of Medicine; the U.S. Census Bureau; the U.S. Department of State; the U.S. Geological Survey; the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office; and the U.S. Senate Library.

There is no fee to attend the seminar. Registration is still open but space is limited; advance registration is required. Attendees are responsible for their own expenses for travel, lodging, and meals.
